AROUSSED OVER

CHILD'S MURDER

MARIAN PARKER, 12, KIDNAPED, TORTURED AND THEN SLAIN

DISEMBOWELED BODY THROWN ON LAWN BEFORE EYES OF FATHER

By DAN CAMPBELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 19.—Hundreds of aroused citizens, spurred by a $100,000 reward, joined police early today in search of "The Fox," kidnaper and slayer of Marian Parker, 12, but the cunning murderer answered by goading the bereaved parents by threatening death to the girl's twin sister.

Shortly before midnight, a sneering, threatening note signed, as previous letters had been signed, "The Fox," was laid on a Hollywood fire alarm box and the alarm was sounded.

The defiant gesture came after police had rounded up hundreds of suspects, three of whom, it was understood, were held after the others were released.

The note promised a similar fate to the twin sister, Marjorie, and in addition to the signature, "The Fox," the envelope in which it was found was marked with the word "death" in Greek letters, as the others had been.

"For the trouble you have caused, Marjorie Parker will be the next victim," the note addressed to the father read. "Nothing can stop the Fox, and those who try will know the penalty."

"If you warn anyone of this second success, it will mean your neck," the missive which police believe without a doubt was written by the fiend who mutilated the body of Marian, said, "try and get me. I am the Fox. You shall never know the rest of the first success. You will miss Marjorie at 12 o'clock." The note was signed "The Fox."

The bottom part of the letter was torn off. Firemen who answered the alarm and found the note are believed to have lost the lower portion in the excitement that followed the discovery.

The police guard around the Parker home was immediately increased. Meanwhile the efforts of police to obtain a tangible clue to the identity of the fiend who lured Marian from school last Thursday, submitted her to indescribable tortures, drugged her and then tossed the disemboweled body on a lawn before the eyes of her father, were at a standstill.

Examination of the death letters by handwriting experts disclosed they had been the collaboration of two persons, one evidently a woman. This bears out the theory that three persons are implicated in the murder, a woman and a middle aged man in addition to the youth who turned over the body.

Airplanes of the California national guard were offered for use in the search. One plane went to Las Vegas on a tip that resulted in the arrest of Lewis Wyatt, who left Los Angeles yesterday morning en route to St. Louis. His connection with the crime is doubtful, however, dispatches of the United Press said.

Squads of motorcycle police are patrolling all roads within a radius that extends hundreds of miles north and south of the city. Police bulletins giving a description of the slayer have been dispatched by these squads to all nearby cities where the aid of peace officers has been enlisted.

While the police have uncovered scores of clues it is generally admitted that they are far from apprehending the slayer.

The most important events that have followed a 36-hour search by 4,000 trained investigators are summarized as follows:

The missing portions of Marion's body were found strewn about Elysian Park by a pedestrian. Arms, legs and vital organs were discovered wrapped in newspapers in five separate packages and tied neatly with strips of cloth evidently torn from a woman's dress.

RELIEF FROM COLD WAVE EXPECTED TODAY

REACTION FROM ZERO TEMPERATURES TO BE GENERAL NORTH TO CANADA

4 DEATHS WERE CAUSED IN CHICAGO BY THE RECENT COLD SPELL

Chicago, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Relief from the cold wave which has been causing suffering throughout the middlewest for the past three days was expected today, the district weather bureau announced.

Reaction from the zero and near-zero temperatures will be general as far north as Canada, the bureau said. Snow flurries probably will accompany the higher temperatures.

Four deaths have been caused in Chicago by the cold spell. Two children were overcome by gas fumes while one man was asphyxiated by escaping gas from a heater, and another was killed when an overheated oil stove exploded.

In Westlake Park, in the heart of the city, was being carefully scrutinized for fingerprints and its license checked. Chief of Detectives Herman Cline believes that it is the car used by the murderer.

Hundreds of suspects were rounded up by police and questioned. All but three were understood to have been released. One of the trio now held is said to be the son of a Los Angeles doctor. His name was withheld. According to police he has been implicated in attacks upon children. He is said to answer the general description of the murderer and was taken into custody when it was asserted he was familiar with the Parker household.

A cordon of police extended to the international boundary line to the south, and along the California state line north thousands of automobiles were stopped and searched. In addition the cheap hotel and apartment house district of the city was being combed for the slayer.

Police are making efforts to trace blood stained towels which were found stuffed in the torso of the victim where it had been severed at the waist. One towel bore the mark of an apartment house but failed to produce a workable clue.

Because of the manner in which the body was cut up it is believed the man may have been a medical student or had some knowledge of surgery. Police are also convinced the murderer was a man of education because of the handwriting and the choice of language in the death missives.

Thousands of private citizens joined in the colossal effort to trap the slayer and all radio broadcasting stations gave his description. A reward gathered by radio stations continued to grow.

Following this second death threat feeling in southern California rose to a new high pitch of excitement. The uncanny fashion in which the slayer has thus far successfully carried out his threats had led to an eerie atmosphere in public gatherings in Los Angeles.

The objective of the first leg of her flight was St. Louis, but if favorable weather was encountered, it was planned to stop at Indianapolis. Visibility at the field was good but sharp winds swept the field and the mercury stood at 12 above zero, as the plane rose from the frozen field. Arriving at the field half an hour before the take-off, Mrs. Lindbergh was suffering from an infected tooth. But she was so excited, she said, over the prospect of Christmas with her son and escape from the cold wave here that she did not "mind" the tooth ache at all.

The chief event on today's program was a luncheon by General Alvaro Obregon at Xochimilco.

Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh wired President Calles from Detroit. The message said: "I deeply appreciate your message. I am grateful to the people of Mexico for their wonderful reception to my son."

Mrs. Lindbergh was to leave Detroit today for Mexico City. Aviators here said the most dangerous part of her trip was that along or over the Gulf of Mexico en route to Tampico.

"KING" PURNELL, HOUSE OF DAVID, DIED ON FRIDAY

SUCCUMBED TO TUBERCULOSIS. SAID THE ATTENDING PHYSICIAN

LOYAL MEMBERS OF THE CULT THOUGHT HE WOULD RISE FROM DEATH TODAY

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 19.—Benjamin S. Purnell, "King" of the House of David religious colony, died last Friday morning of tuberculosis, it was learned today from Dr. C. N. Sowers.

No announcement of the death was made previously because of the belief of loyal members of the cult over which "King" Ben reigned that he would rise from the dead today.

A belief that Purnell, who once strode about the grounds of his colony in flowing white robes while a thousand long-haired devotees stood by in awe, would never die was one of the tenets of the cult's religion. "King" Ben, self-styled "Son of Man," first received nation-wide notoriety five years ago by charges of young girls that he debauched them under the guise of a religious rite.

At his bedside when he died was Myrtle Tulk, one of his favorites among his followers, and his nurse, Florence Walker. His body was left untouched over the week-end in the bed where he died.

FARM RELIEF ACTIVITY GIVEN DEFINITE SHAPE

HOUSE AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE HEARINGS TO START JANUARY 10

WILL CONSUME 5 DAYS, MEASURE THEN TO BE CONSIDERED BY HOUSE

Washington, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Farm relief activity started today in the house with introduction of a slightly revised McNary-Haugen bill by Rep. Haugen, Kans., its co-author.

Haugen, chairman of the house agriculture committee, announced his committee will begin hearing on Jan. 10, which he hopes will last only five days, so the measure may be considered early by the house.

In principle the bill is the same as the old measure, containing still the equalization fee to which the administration objects. However, Haugen has made some changes, among them increase of the revolving fund from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000, inclusion of all commodities and an appropriation of $25,000,000 to establish terminal market facilities. The bill recently introduced in the senate by Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, does not increase the revolving fund. Haugen said a larger fund is necessary because of inclusion of all commodities.

"I feel confident the bill will pass the house," Haugen said.

In commenting on charges that the measure is being used to further the nomination of former Governor Lowden of Illinois as republican presidential candidate, he said, "I am not concerned with politics but with relief for the farmer."

APPARENT SUICIDE OF 14 YEAR OLD BOY TO BE INVESTIGATED

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—A coroner's jury will attempt to decide today the nature and motive of the apparent suicide of Richard "Buddy" Williams, 14-year-old Florissant school boy.

He was found fatally wounded by a shotgun fire in his bedroom last night a few moments after his mother had urged him not to return to a nearby pond to skate because of the cold weather.

"Goodbye everybody. I will not need my skates any more," he was said to have shouted from the top of the stairway leading to his room. A moment later members of his family heard a shot, and on rushing to his room found a smoking shotgun lying beside his bullet-torn body.

'SOUTHERN CROSS' AFTER THE WORLD ENDURANCE RECORD

AT 5:20 A. M. CENTRAL STANDARD TIME FLEW OVER SAN JOSE, CALIF.

AIRPLANE PILOTED BY CAPTAIN KINGSFORD-SMITH AND LIEUT. POND

San Francisco, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—The giant Fokker monoplane "Southern Cross" was well on its way to a new world's endurance record early today.

At 3:20 A. M. (5:20 C. S. T.) the Southern Cross radioed that she was over San Jose.

"Flying 3,000 feet high, everything O. K.," the message said.

The airplane, piloted by Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Lieut. George Pond took off from Mills Field at 8:23:38 A. M. P. C. T. yesterday.

At 4:30 A. M. Pacific coast time today, the endurance fliers wireless that the gas supply of the ship was getting low. The message said: "Okay, but worried by high gas consumption. Have throttled down to 1,400 revolutions. Indicators show only two hundred gallons in main tank and have used one hundred from rear tank. Perhaps indicators inaccurate. Otherwise everything fine."

A message at 5:20 A. M. said: "Cruising at an altitude of 2,500 feet. Everything O. K."

At 6:20 A. M., a radio message received from the plane said:

"All is well."

The giant Fokker was above the city and early morning workers were able to see its flashing lights as it cruised above the business district.

COAST GUARD VESSEL RAMMED SUB SATURDAY

OF OFFICERS AND CREW OF 40 ONLY 6 ARE BELIEVED LEFT ALIVE

STORM TODAY HANDICAPS THE FLEET IN ITS RESCUE WORK

By OTIS PEABODY SWIFT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 19.—The stormy Atlantic, pitted against the United States navy in an unequal fight for the lives of a handful of survivors imprisoned on the sunken submarine S-4, had the upper hand today.

A gale was blowing off the tip of Cape Cod where the S-4, rammed Saturday by the coast guard destroyer Paulding, lay 101 feet under the surface, with at least six men sealed in one of her compartments.

The sea became too rough today for diving and depression settled on those aboard the half-dozen rescue ships when the mine sweeper Falcon, carrying Rear Admiral Frank Bumbo and the divers with their gear were forced to leave the scene for Boston.

The Falcon carried L. S. Michael, a diver, first of the men who risked their lives in the rescue attempt to fall a victim to the sea.

Michael had become caught in the wrecked conning tower of the S-4 while working on the air hose connection through which the Falcon was pumping air into the submarine's ballast tanks in an effort to start her towards the surface.

He was rescued by Thomas Eadie, another diver, who, although he had already spent hours under the chilly water and had been the first man to reach the S-4, and learn that life was aboard her, went down again to save his comrade.

Eadie brought Michael to the surface and it was found he was in a serious condition. The Falcon decided to take him to the naval hospital in Boston and then return.

With the departure of the Falcon, diving operations necessarily ceased, but it was assumed from shore that the U. S. S. Bushnell and the submarine S-8, which were standing by, would take up the work of pumping air.

The weather was bitter cold and a 50-mile gale swept the rescue scene. Freezing spray coated the vessels and men with ice.

Conditions could not have been worse for rescue work, navy men said.

The divers sent down yesterday from the rescue boats riding the tossing waters above the sunken submarine had communicated with the six men still living by tapping on the hull, and had learned that the air was becoming foul. It was doubtful if any of the others of the crew of 40 remained alive.

This with adverse weather today, the navy's efforts at rescue became a gallant but heart-breaking race against time, each precious minute that passed bringing nearer the time when the air in S-4 would be too foul to sustain life.

DIVER TAPS HULL; SURVIVORS ANSWER

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 19.—Six survivors, sealed in a compartment of the sunken submarine S-4, awaited rescue today in the foul air of their prison on the floor of the ocean off Cape Cod, while the navy fought with every resource at its command to save them.

Rescue ships clung to their positions in the wind-swept, stormy sea, 100 feet above the S-4 and pumped air through a hose into an intake valve on the sunken submarine.

The terrible plight of the men still alive on the S-4 spurred the rescue workers to almost superhuman effort.

It was thought the entire crew of 40 men and officers had perished when the S-4 was rammed and sent

WILL CONSUME 5 DAYS, MEASURE THEN TO BE CONSIDERED BY HOUSE

Washington, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Farm relief activity started today in the house with introduction of a slightly revised McNary-Haugen bill by Rep. Haugen, Kans., its co-author.

Haugen, chairman of the house agriculture committee, announced his committee will begin hearing on Jan. 10, which he hopes will last only five days, so the measure may be considered early by the house.

In principle the bill is the same as the old measure, containing still the equalization fee to which the administration objects. However, Haugen has made some changes, among them increase of the revolving fund from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000, inclusion of all commodities and an appropriation of $25,000,000 to establish terminal market facilities. The bill recently introduced in the senate by Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, does not increase the revolving fund. Haugen said a larger fund is necessary because of inclusion of all commodities.

"I feel confident the bill will pass the house," Haugen said.

In commenting on charges that the measure is being used to further the nomination of former Governor Lowden of Illinois as republican presidential candidate, he said, "I am not concerned with politics but with relief for the farmer."

APPARENT SUICIDE OF 14 YEAR OLD BOY TO BE INVESTIGATED

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—A coroner's jury will attempt to decide today the nature and motive of the apparent suicide of Richard "Buddy" Williams, 14-year-old Florissant school boy.

He was found fatally wounded by a shotgun fire in his bedroom last night a few moments after his mother had urged him not to return to a nearby pond to skate because of the cold weather.

"Goodbye everybody. I will not need my skates any more," he was said to have shouted from the top of the stairway leading to his room. A moment later members of his family heard a shot, and on rushing to his room found a smoking shotgun lying beside his bullet-torn body.

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 19.—The stormy Atlantic, pitted against the United States navy in an unequal fight for the lives of a handful of survivors imprisoned on the sunken submarine S-4, had the upper hand today.

A gale was blowing off the tip of Cape Cod where the S-4, rammed Saturday by the coast guard destroyer Paulding, lay 101 feet under the surface, with at least six men sealed in one of her compartments.

The sea became too rough today for diving and depression settled on those aboard the half-dozen rescue ships when the mine sweeper Falcon, carrying Rear Admiral Frank Bumbo and the divers with their gear were forced to leave the scene for Boston.

The Falcon carried L. S. Michael, a diver, first of the men who risked their lives in the rescue attempt to fall a victim to the sea.

Michael had become caught in the wrecked conning tower of the S-4 while working on the air hose connection through which the Falcon was pumping air into the submarine's ballast tanks in an effort to start her towards the surface.

He was rescued by Thomas Eadie, another diver, who, although he had already spent hours under the chilly water and had been the first man to reach the S-4, and learn that life was aboard her, went down again to save his comrade.

Eadie brought Michael to the surface and it was found he was in a serious condition. The Falcon decided to take him to the naval hospital in Boston and then return.

With the departure of the Falcon, diving operations necessarily ceased, but it was assumed from shore that the U. S. S. Bushnell and the submarine S-8, which were standing by, would take up the work of pumping air.

The weather was bitter cold and a 50-mile gale swept the rescue scene. Freezing spray coated the vessels and men with ice.

Conditions could not have been worse for rescue work, navy men said.

The divers sent down yesterday from the rescue boats riding the tossing waters above the sunken submarine had communicated with the six men still living by tapping on the hull, and had learned that the air was becoming foul. It was doubtful if any of the others of the crew of 40 remained alive.

This with adverse weather today, the navy's efforts at rescue became a gallant but heart-breaking race against time, each precious minute that passed bringing nearer the time when the air in S-4 would be too foul to sustain life.

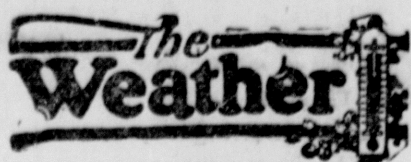

Rescue ships clung to their positions in the wind-swept, stormy sea, 100 feet above the S-4 and pumped air through a hose into an intake valve on the sunken submarine.

The terrible plight of the men still alive on the S-4 spurred the rescue workers to almost superhuman effort.

It was thought the entire crew of 40 men and officers had perished when the S-4 was rammed and sent (Continued on Page 8) arrested a man and woman and held both for investigation.

FIEND SLAYS GIRL, THREATENS TWIN SISTER

The couple were taken into custody at a house near where Marian's mutilated body was turned over to her father.

Police reported finding bloody footprints in the living room and traces of blood on a newly washed towel at the house. Both denied any knowledge of the crime.

Police, however, pointed out that from this residence it could have been easy to see if Parker was followed when he came to the scene with the ransom money. Also a system of alleys left possible return to this house without going out of the block.

Suspicion was directed to the man and woman, whose names are being withheld, by the manner in which their automobile was seen dashing in and out of the alley at various times.

WOMAN DETAINED FOR QUESTIONING

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 19.—After hours of questioning, police decided today to detain a woman arrested in connection with the brutal murder of 12-year-old Marian Parker, banker's daughter, for further investigation.

A man arrested with her was later released.

Police said the woman was found wandering near the spot where the child's mutilated body was hurried from the automobile, screaming "I didn't kill her. They did it. They did it."

At the time of her arrest she gave the name of Lillian Padley and her age at 22 years.

A charge of drunkenness later was changed to one of suspicion of murder.

Detectives who questioned the pair admitted to newspapermen that evidence against the woman was circumstantial and that she had been ordered held in order that several points of her story could be investigated.

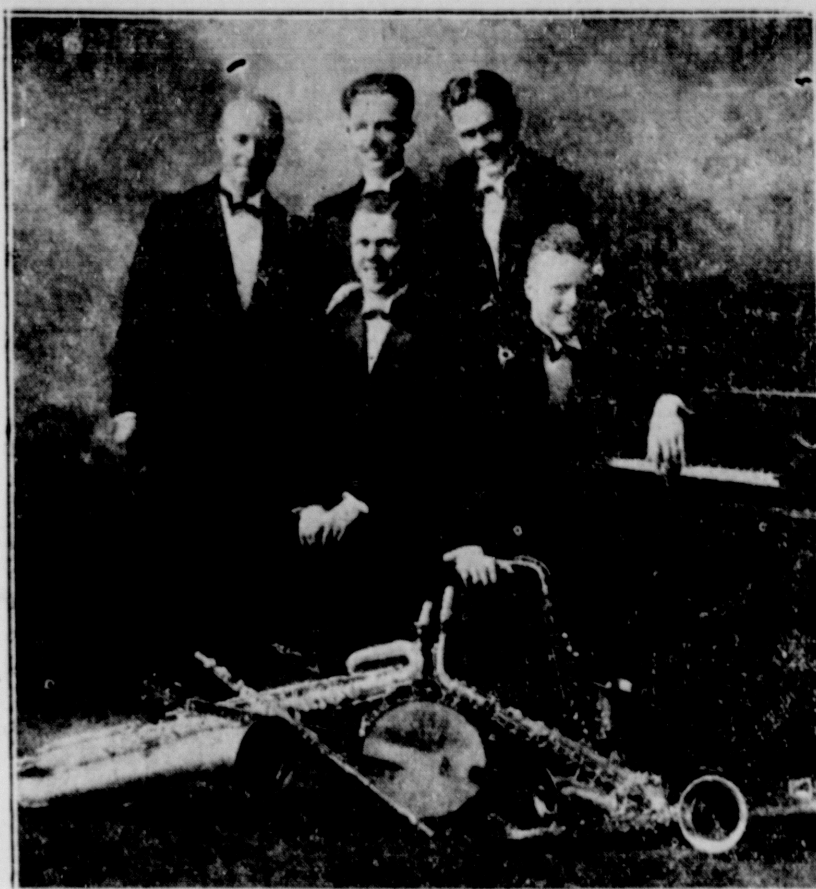

The woman continued to deny implication in the crime after she had been told that the man arrested with her had been released.

The landlord of the house in which the pair lived was being sought for confirmation of their stories.

FROM THE BACK SEAT

The driver of an automobile, who was plainly out of his element in city traffic attempted to turn his car around in the middle of the block and was side-swiped and upset by a hook-and-ladder fire truck.

Striding angrily over to the overturned car, a traffic policeman poked his head through the broken window and growled, "You'll get ten years for this. Whatcha mean by blockin' traffic like this?"

"You let him alone," said a shrill female voice from the back seat. "How did we know them drunken painters was gonna run into us?"

Fodder Corn Makes Good Feed for a Dairy Cow

Fodder corn makes very good feed for dairy cows when a silo is not available. It is a better milk-producing feed than timothy hay. The amount of waste that may occur in feeding fodder corn will depend to a considerable extent on how it has been grown and cured. If it is grown quite thickly so that the stalks are fine, most of it will be consumed and especially during the forepart of the season when it contains considerable juice.

Where the stalks are coarse, there may be as much as even 20 or 30 per cent waste in stalks that are left uneaten. When run through a cutter, it is practically all consumed.

With a silo there is practically no waste if the silo has been properly filled, except what is taken off the top when the silo is first opened. The waste in silage based on the entire amount put into the silo need not exceed 5 per cent. Where the waste in fodder corn can be reduced to 10 per cent, it is very low.

THE OLD CALENDAR

WE have an old calendar at the house, whose last page set out the weather for December, as printed over a year ago, and shows that almanac and calendar weather prognostications come close to the truth.

Here is the December weather review:

1st to 3rd, storm period. Rains in the Gulf states, except in peninsular Florida, and snows further north and heavy fogs in the eastern states.

4th to 7th, very cold and fair, freezing conditions quite generally, except in the south, where stormy conditions will set in on the 7th.

8th to 11th, mild period with local storms in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York on the 11th, which will yield heavy snows in the northwest.

12th to 15th, general storm period. This is a soliterranean period, which at this season of the year will be more than likely to bring especially disagreeable weather except severe storms in the Great Lakes region and New England.

15th to 18th, higher winds and milder weather in the southeastern states.

19th to 21st, unsettled period with severe local storms on the 20th in the west and on the 21st in the east.

22nd to 25th, storm period, very high winds, sleet, snow, or rain, according to latitude, especially on the 22nd and 23rd in the west.

25th to 28th, cold period, local snow flurries in the Great Lakes region and eastward.

28th to 31st, continuation of the cold period and generally fair, especially in the west and southwest.

Precipitation above normal and temperature below the mean.

According to this calendar December 21 is the shortest day of the year, and December 22 is marked "winter begins."

MISSED SOME GOOD HUNTING

CAPTAIN WILLIAM H. FAWCETT, of Breezy Point Lodge near Brainerd, who spent some months hunting brown bear, mountain sheep, etc., in Alaska, missed the biggest game of all, it appears. According to a story from Paris a keratosaurus is roaming the upper Yukon reaches.

The animal has been photographed by a Dawson miner, who admits he is a truthful man and who stood his ground while the monster, as big as ten elephants, was kicking loose an avalanche of rocks.

The gigantic prehistoric creature predates the glacial period and in some way appears to have survived that rush of ice and maintained its habitat near the Arctic circle.

The keratosaurus kicks up quite a trail, making it easier to follow than a deer track. Its belly is reported to make a gully 4 feet deep, and perhaps 20 feet wide. Where it rested while feeding, it made an imprint 50 feet long. A foot print measured two yards across. On the hairy belly of this monster of jurassic times hung clods of mud as big as 10-year-old children. When the animal is traveling high speed, it makes 20 miles an hour.

The average big game rifle of Captain Fawcett will not fell this monster and heavy artillery carrying explosive shells may be necessary. Science may demand that the keratosaurus be preserved alive, but the capture of such a beast will present more problems than when the Captain's black bear ran away from Breezy Point.

BRITAIN PAYS ITS BILLS

SUCH is life. Britain makes a huge payment of principal and interest owing the United States and the whole momentous transaction is compressed into a 14 line item, a dispatch of the Associated Press from London.

An Thursday last week Great Britain made a payment of $92,575,000 to the United States treasury, and of this sum $35,000,000 is in payment of the principal of the debt. With this payment, the total payments to the United States since the funding of the British debt amount to $802,980,000, of which $120,000,000 has been on account of the principal. The amount outstanding has been reduced to $4,480,000,000.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago may quarrel with the British regarding points in our histories, but you can set down one thing, not often mentioned in a text book, that Britain scrupulously observes the terms of any obligations entered into.

MRS. BAYLISS' APPOINTMENTS

MRS. WILLARD BAYLISS of Chisholm, president of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Club, has announced her committee appointments, and these in Brainerd and vicinity include: Mrs. E. J. Quinn on Division of Citizenship Training, Department of American Citizenship.

Mrs. M. B. Ellingson of Ironton in Division of Community Service, and Mrs. J. A. Thabes on Division of Conservation, Department of Education.

Mrs. H. H. Angst, of Crosby, on Credential Committee. Mrs. H. A. Lever of Crosby on Educational Exhibit Committee. Mrs. D. E. Whitney on State Committee for Crippled Children.

A STRONG belief that completion of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterways project is to be expected within a comparatively few years is being evidenced in a preliminary real estate boom in Superior and Duluth, with large amounts of outside capital invested, according to the Western Magazine, published in St. Paul. Brainerd, 100 miles from the lake, may hope to feel this impetus too.

DEGREES given at Minnesota University include these conferred on boys and girls of Brainerd and vicinity: Medical school, graduate in nursing, Helen J. Erickson, Brainerd. Medical school, John A. Thabes, Brainerd. Graduate school, geology, Doctor of Philosophy, William A. Patterson, Brainerd. College of Education, Bachelor of Science, Elmaar H. Bakken, Pequot.

AMONG the postmaster nominations sent to the senate by President Coolidge are those of Carl Adams, Brainerd; Adolph C. Gilbertson, Ironton.

AMERICA is setting the pace for the rest of the world in game protection says an authority.

EUROPE SUFFERING FROM BITTEREST COLD IN THIRTY YEARS

London, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Practically all Europe was suffering today from the bitterest cold weather in thirty years.
Many casualties resulted, including seven dead and thirty taken to hospitals in Paris.
Reports indicated the weather was most severe in the Balkans, Italy, France, Russia, Scandinavia and the British Isles.

Proud Mexican Title

The title "Father of Mexican independence" was given to Miguel Hidalgo y Castilla, a Mexican priest, who lived from 1753 to 1811. He started a movement for independence which cost him his life. Some years later he was extolled as a saint, and the new-born republic erected a magnificent statue to him.

The animal has been photographed by a Dawson miner, who admits he is a truthful man and who stood his ground while the monster, as big as ten elephants, was kicking loose an avalanche of rocks.

The gigantic prehistoric creature predates the glacial period and in some way appears to have survived that rush of ice and maintained its habitat near the Arctic circle.

The keratosaurus kicks up quite a trail, making it easier to follow than a deer track. Its belly is reported to make a gully 4 feet deep, and perhaps 20 feet wide. Where it rested while feeding, it made an imprint 50 feet long. A foot print measured two yards across. On the hairy belly of this monster of jurassic times hung clods of mud as big as 10-year-old children. When the animal is traveling high speed, it makes 20 miles an hour.

The average big game rifle of Captain Fawcett will not fell this monster and heavy artillery carrying explosive shells may be necessary. Science may demand that the keratosaurus be preserved alive, but the capture of such a beast will present more problems than when the Captain's black bear ran away from Breezy Point.

BRITAIN PAYS ITS BILLS

SUCH is life. Britain makes a huge payment of principal and interest owing the United States and the whole momentous transaction is compressed into a 14 line item, a dispatch of the Associated Press from London.

An Thursday last week Great Britain made a payment of $92,575,000 to the United States treasury, and of this sum $35,000,000 is in payment of the principal of the debt. With this payment, the total payments to the United States since the funding of the British debt amount to $802,980,000, of which $120,000,000 has been on account of the principal. The amount outstanding has been reduced to $4,480,000,000.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago may quarrel with the British regarding points in our histories, but you can set down one thing, not often mentioned in a text book, that Britain scrupulously observes the terms of any obligations entered into.

London, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Practically all Europe was suffering today from the bitterest cold weather in thirty years.

The title "Father of Mexican Independence" was given to Miguel Hidalgo y Castilla, a Mexican priest, who lived from 1753 to 1811. He started a movement for independence which cost him his life. JOE STETCHER WILL WRESTLE ED "STRANGLER" LEWIS

MATCH TO BE AT NEW COLISEUM IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

DATE FOR TITLE MATCH IS SET
NEXT FEBRUARY

ENDS SEVEN YEAR PERIOD OF EFFORTS TO GET TWO INTO SAME RING

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 19. — (U.P.)—Articles have been signed by Joe Stetcher, champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, and Ed "Strangler" Lewis, his outstanding opponent and former champion, for a title match at the new Coliseum here next February 20.

Signing the two grapplers at a mutual guarantee of $5,000 on the side and at a match guarantee said by Promoter Tom Paeks to be the largest in the history of the sport, ends a seven year period of efforts to get both men into the same ring.

Lewis defeated Stetcher, then champion, in New York Dec. 13, 1920 and according to Stetcher subsequently refused to meet him. The next year Stanislaus Zbyszko defeated Lewis but three months later in a return match Lewis regained the title.

Then occurred the famous Wayne "Big" Munn-Lewis match at Kansas City Jan. 8, 1925, when Munn bodily hurled the champion from the ring and subsequently won two out of three falls. Lewis later claimed he was "robbed" and refused to relinquish the belt symbolical of the title.

On April 15, 1925, Zbyszko tipped over Munn—who claimed the title despite Lewis' refusal to abdicate, and on May 30, 1925, Stetcher regained the crown by defeating Zbyszko in a match here. Lewis later decisively defeated Munn, increasing the ill-will in the sport.

Harry W. Sharpe, St. Louis wrestling referee, will officiate the Stetcher-Lewis match here in February, for which Stetcher has posted an additional personal guarantee of $5,000 which Lewis is expected to meet.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT IN BIG LEAGUES

MAY BE SOME SHORTCOMINGS IN 1928 CROP OF BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS

BUT NOT A MAN AMONG THEM IS APT TO GET SWINDLED IN BASEBALL DEAL

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 19. — (U.P.)—Now that the major league meeting has ended, it is possible to tell who's who and what's what in the big leagues.

Whatever the shortcomings of the 1928 crop of big league managers, there's not a man among them who is apt to get swindled in a baseball deal.

Little trading took place at the annual winter meetings and it was principally because every club wanted a couple of real ball players in exchange for a flock of dubs.

The Browns-Tigers trade, the Cuyler deal and the Sisler sale constitute the biggest transactions since the Yankees won the world's championship last October.

And the way things stand right now it looks like the Yankees might go on winning world's championships for a few years to come—well, anyway, the American league pennant.

Miller Huggins hasn't strengthened his club any. If he did they'd kick the Yankees out of the league. It's hard enough for them to keep peace among the other clubs the way things are now.

Some manager even went so far as to suggest that the Yankees send Babe Ruth to manage the Red Sox and give Lou Gehrig to Cleveland in order to equalize the strength in the league.

Huggins was looking around for a young pitcher of the calibre of Ted Lyons of the White Sox or Charley Ruffing of the Red Sox and a substitute infielder, but he didn't look far.

He might have obtained them, but he would have had to part with

BRAINERD HOCKEY LEAGUE ORGANIZED; 5 TEAMS JOIN

Hoyt, Gehrig, Lazzeri, Koenig and some of his other stars.

The other managers placed an absolute boycott on Huggins unless he was willing to dispose of some of his regulars.

Most baseball men believe the Browns slipped off a fast one on the Tigers when they obtained Heinie Manush and Lou Blue in exchange for Harry Rice and Elam Van Gilder.

Manush and Blue are two rattling good players and if they get on with Dan Howley they may make George Moriarity sorry he shipped them down the river.

Rice is a youngster and a better than fair outfielder, but Van Gilder is a second rate pitcher.

The Senators added offensive strength in George Sisler whom they purchased from the Browns for $25,000. Sisler may prove to be the best buy of several baseball years.

Bucky Harris hasn't been able to dispose of Joe Judge yet. The Indians wanted him, but they weren't willing to part with Joe Shaute, pitcher, and $10,000 to get him.

The Athletics have let Zack Wheat and Ty Cobb go, but have obtained a brilliant youngster in Ossie Orwoll, pitcher-outfielder from Milwaukee.

The Red Sox bought Ken Williams, one-time home run king of the American league, from the Browns.

The White Sox haven't strengthened any. They paid $123,000 for Chalmers Cissell, the Portland star, when they already had three shortstops, Hunnefeld, Flakamper, and Johnny Munn, a flash from the Texas league. The Sox also have two first basemen, Clancy and Sheely. Schalk is willing to trade Sheely.

Johnny Mostil is expected to be in shape this spring and make a bid to win his old job back from Alex Metzler, who was the best young outfielder in the league.

The Cubs have added reinforcements and are going to kick up a lot of dust in the national league race next season. Cuyler added to Stephenson, Webb, Wilson and Leathcote, gives the Cubs just about the best outfield in the league.

Maguire, a second baseman from Toledo, and Johnny Butler, Brooklyn shortstop, have been added to the Cub infield.

The Pirates plugged the gap at second by the acquisition of Sparky Adams.

The Robins will have a new infield of Bissonette, recalled from the International league; Riconda, formerly with the Braves; Bancroft, bought from Boston for $20,000; and Friberg, former Cub, caught in the draft.

The Giants' only important catch was Lefty O'Doul, slugging outfielder from the coast league.

The Cards acquired Mogan, outfielder, Cooney, infielder, and Claude Jonnard, catcher, from the Phillies and bought Frank Gibson, catcher, from the Braves, but none of them are prospective regulars.

The Phillies got Jimmy Ring, pitcher, and John Schulte, catcher, from the Cards.

ENGBRETSON STARS WITH AUGSBURG IN TWO CAGE BATTLES

WAS MAIN COG IN OFFENSIVE AGAINST ST. THOMAS AND ARION FIVE

LEADS TEAM MATES IN SCORING ON BOTH OCCASIONS; TO- TALLED 24 POINTS

"Wally" Engbretson, who has thrilled many an audience on the local high school floor, the undisputed star of the B. H. S. cagers during his high school career here, by far the flashiest forward on the Rainbow squad last season, comes into his own again this season.

He is playing left forward on the Augsburg quint and has already displayed scintillating work on the college cage floor and has been the unit to bring victory to his team in two games already this season.

In a recent game the Auggies defeated the Arion five by the score of 33 to 13.

The Minneapolis Journal has the following to say regarding Engbretson's playing:

"A new star broke into the Augsburg line-up in the person of Engbretson, left forward. The newcomer was the main cog in the offensive staged by the winners, when he totalled 13 points. Connolly, teaming with Engbretson at right forward, was second with seven points."

The Minneapolis Tribune has the following remarks regarding Engbretson in the Augsburg-St. Thomas game, which the Auggies won by the count of 36 to 20:

"Although Kolesar was the principal figure in the Auggie offense, he had to take second place in individual scoring. Engbretson, speedy forward, caged five goals and one free throw to lead with 11 points."

The "Wildcat" is loose again and welterweight boxers with weak chins are scurrying for cover.

Reinstated recently by the Kansas Athletic Commission, "Ace" Hudkins of Nebraska is prowling once more along the trail to the title.

Although prevented at present from engaging Joe Dundee, the welterweight champion, in a scrap for the crown, Hudkins is not letting the dust gather too thickly upon the canvas in his path.

"Ace" will take on Jack Zivic of Pittsburgh at Detroit next month, after which we will know more about his chances against Dundee.

The champion cannot oblige Hudkins at present because of an unfortunate occurrence out in Los Angeles. It seems that a California promoter had promised Dundee $60,000 for his end of a title fight with the Nebraska Wildcat, but had expected Joe to take part of the purse in climate, sunshine, free air, etc., etc.

Joe and his manager, Maxy Waxman, were familiar with the air and all that sort of thing, so they sat in their hotel room behind a strong-arm bodyguard and declined to proceed. The fans tore up the chairs and tore down the ring and the boxing authorities suspended everyone connected with the affair.

Dundee will be meeting Hudkins one of these days, however, and if Joe has kept the form he displayed in winning the championship in stopping Walker and Freeman and in whipping the stuffing out of all the other welterweights around the place, he should have little trouble in putting an end to the Nebraskan's dreams of a title.

It probably will not be long now before the authorities who have banned Dundee because of the California affair relent and permit the welterweight champion to do his stuff.

The Kansas authorities had enough on the "Wildcat" to bar him for life. They exposed him in the act of arranging a match with Sid Socklyn, one of his sparring partners, who was somewhat thinly disguised as "Young Battling Levinsky of Australia."

Boxing bodies, quick to inflict penalties and hand out suspensions, are equally quick to forget and forgive.

Phil Kaplan, New York middleweight, was ruled off for life for deliberately fouling George Courtney, only to be reinstated some few weeks later by the New York State Athletic Commission.

Other incidents of this sort have been frequent.

One recalls the famous fracas in the office of the New York commission when Johnny Reiser, son of the famous "John the Barber," assaulted Patsy Foley, the white haired but still pugnacious referee. The younger Reiser, coached by his father in the affair, came off second best as it was, but was promptly suspended for life. His reinstatement was merely a matter of course.

Things of this sort do not tend to increase the already abbreviated respect which the boxing racket generally has for its various governing bodies.

It probably will not be long now before the authorities who have banned Dundee because of the California affair relent and permit the welterweight champion to do his stuff.

The Kansas authorities had enough on the "Wildcat" to bar him for life. They exposed him in the act of arranging a match with Sid Socklyn, one of his sparring partners, who was somewhat thinly disguised as "Young Battling Levinsky of Australia."

Boxing bodies, quick to inflict penalties and hand out suspensions, are equally quick to forget and forgive.

Phil Kaplan, New York middleweight, was ruled off for life for deliberately fouling George Courtney, only to be reinstated some few weeks later by the New York State Athletic Commission.

Other incidents of this sort have been frequent.

One recalls the famous fracas in the office of the New York commission when Johnny Reiser, son of the famous "John the Barber," assaulted Patsy Foley, the white haired but still pugnacious referee. The younger Reiser, coached by his father in the affair, came off second best as it was, but was promptly suspended for life. His reinstatement was merely a matter of course.

Things of this sort do not tend to increase the already abbreviated respect which the boxing racket generally has for its various governing bodies.

TWIN CITY AUTO SHOW AT MILL CITY FEB. 4-11

TO BE HOUSED IN $3,000,000
MUNICIPAL AUDI-

EXHIBITION HAS RISEN TO THE DIGNITY OF A NATIONAL SHOW

Minneapolis, Dec. 19.—The Twin City Auto Show is coming back to Minneapolis where it was cradled, after wandering around in St. Paul for eight years.

The completion of this city's big $3,000,000 municipal auditorium is responsible for the return of the wandering child. With its new and sumptuous surroundings, the 21st annual show is expected to outdo in splendor and magnificence all of its predecessors.

Added interest will be lent the undertaking this winter because it has risen to the dignity of a National Show—an honor that heretofore rested only with New York, Chicago and Boston. This new distinction means the coming show will have the endorsement of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the National Automobile Dealers' Association, the Motor and Accessory Manufacturers' Association, the National Automobile Equipment Association and the Minnesota Motor Trades Association.

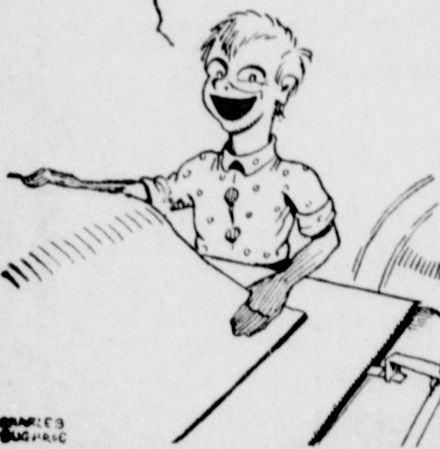

The headline feature of the '28 show will be a National Equipment show, where most of the largest motor accessory and parts factories will exhibit their products.

This has been arranged for the benefit of visiting garage men and automotive dealers who will have an opportunity to see in actual operation the very latest in garage equipment and accessories. Expert workmen will be in charge of the various demonstrations.

Twin City wholesalers and jobbers of automotive products will be represented nearly 100 per cent at the Auditorium. In past years, many of these firms held private exhibitions in their places of business but this season they will join forces at the Equipment Show.

An Invitation For The Youngsters

Christmas is the children's holiday and our store is crammed from top to bottom with gifts that will delight them. Bring them in before Christmas and let them look their fill at the dolls, toys and games. They will enjoy it and we shall, too.

While the holiday is almost universal, it is not celebrated everywhere in exactly the same manner. In a country not so far away, the children are told to put their shoes on the windowsill and the Three Kings will come on their camels bearing gifts. Santa Claus with his reindeer would seem a bit out of place to these brown-eyed youngsters who have never seen a flake of snow.

ROAD CONDITIONS BACK TO NORMAL

Buses Resume Scheduled Runs Today; Trains All Reported Operating on Time

WARMER WEATHER SEEN

Snowplows Clear Roads West of City Today; Mercury Rises to 15 Above at 1 P. M.

The State Highway Department here concentrated their efforts today on the plowing of highways No. 19 and 2, west of the city, the last section to be cleared up from the recent stormy weather.

Indications tended to establish normal road conditions by tonight. The Twin City buses continued their scheduled trips and other bus routes were expected to be opened today.

The trains were running nearer to schedule today than any day since the storm. The temperature last night recorded 7 degrees below zero as the minimum and raised to 5 below at 8 o'clock. Forecasts showed that the cold wave throughout the northwest had been momentarily broken. The thermometer showed 15 above at 1 o'clock.

The county plows today were being used on State Aid Roads No. 4 and 5.

A checkup of conditions following the storm revealed the following: The heaviest snow was around Bemidji. There was also heavy snow around Moorhead and a strong wind had rapidly filled cuts and closed roads around Detroit Lakes. Superintendents at Duluth, Virginia, and Brainerd reported heavy snow and slow going, but all roads open today.

Brainerd 25 Years Ago

Mayor Halsted was surprised to find in his mail this morning the commission from the grand lodge of the Eagles appointing him grand deputy president of the order. Coming unsolicited as it did the mayor was certainly honored. He was already past worthy president of the local aerle.

J. C. Hessel has heard nothing more regarding the money which was lost him by a rich relative in Germany. He expects to hear from there, however, in a short time.

On Christmas eve W. S. Wheeler, of this city, and Miss Mary Scott of Scotchtown, Quebec, will be married and after spending a few weeks in the east they will come to Brainerd to make their future home.

Jerome Kelleher has leased his bowling alley to J. N. Omen. Mr. Omen intends to buy new fixtures and will fix up the place in elegant style. The alleys have recently been put in excellent shape.

The planing mill of the Brainerd Lumber Company has been started again after a shutdown of several days for repairs. The mill will be run with full force from now until spring. The men are all busy getting the machinery in the big mill in shape for next season's work.

Nebraska City, Neb., Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—The Nebraska City National Bank was robbed of approximately $35,000 in bonds and $15,000 is cash by two unmasked bandits shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The bandits forced four employees and two customers into the vault, scooped up the cash and bonds and escaped. No one knew how they entered, or whether they left afoot or in a car.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

WOLVES REPORTED IN LARGE NUMBERS

Hunters, Trappers and Farmers Continue Drive to Rid County of Wolves

13 SHOT LAST WEEK

Farmers Report Presence of Animal in Yards; Menace to Cattle and Deer

Trappers, hunters and farmers continued their drive last week to rid the county of wolves with the result that 13 were shot and trapped.

In spite of the large number taken this year farmers reported many packs still at large that are menacing deer and farm stock.

The following collected bounties last week at the county auditor's: M. H. Moritz, Louis Moritz, Fairfield; Ed. Kimball, L. T. Sanford, Watertown; Frank Skinaway, Ross Lake; S. J. Berry, Riverton; D. G. Peterson, W. Schwendeman, Paul Bernard, Brainerd; Ed. Ledoux, Maple Grove; M. Walton, Jenkins; William Lucas, Wolford; H. R. Congdon, Oak Lawn.

The lure of wolf hunting, the $15 bounty and the amount received for the hide has extended to all parts of the county. Farmers reported seeing wolves on moonlight nights prowling about the fields and many Brainerd hunters have formed groups to track down the elusive animal.

TRAINEE FAMILIES ARE ENTERTAINED

American Legion Auxiliary Host at a Christmas Party on Saturday

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Santa Claus Gives Each Kiddie Present, and Family Heads Remembered Too

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary entertained Saturday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce at a Christmas party for the trainee families who live in the country.

The children played games and sang songs and danced around the Christmas tree waiting for Santa to come—when he did arrive shrieks were heard from all over the room and some of the more timid youngsters ran and hid their faces while those just a wee bit braver stood and stared.

Santa gave each kiddie a pair of stockings, a toy and nuts and candy. Each family was given a box of apples. Everyone went home with a happy smile on their faces and their arms full of bundles.

Will the Minnesota plate of 1928 resemble the above? If the suggestion of Tingdale Brothers of Minneapolis is accepted it undoubtedly will.

Last year the Tingdale Brothers of Minneapolis suggested that the Minnesota Automobile license tags be changed so as to carry the wording, "Land of 10,000 Lakes." Their suggestion this year is that the shape of the tag be changed so as to represent the outline of a fish.

Idaho has adopted a potato as an outline, and Minnesota, the nation's greatest summer playground, should adopt the fish outline is the belief of Tingdale Brothers.

There is no doubt that if Minnesota cars all carried fish shaped license tags, reminding people everywhere they go that Minnesota is a great summer playground, that the state would get a great amount of publicity.

Rogers was found guilty recently on a charge of robbing the Farmers and Merchants bank here June 8.

The defense counsel served notice that a motion for a new trial would be filed. Rogers made a plea to be left in the Beadle county jail until action on the new trial had been completed.

Just before receiving his sentence, Rogers charged in the court that he had been framed by Burns detectives when he was arrested on the charge of robbing the bank here.

ROAD CONDITIONS BACK TO NORMAL

Buses Resume Scheduled Runs Today: Trains All Reported Operating on Time

WARMER WEATHER SEEN

Snowplows Clear Roads West of City Today: Mercury Rises to 15 Above at 1 P. M.

The State Highway Department here concentrated their efforts today on the plowing of highways No. 19 and 2, west of the city, the last section to be cleared up from the recent stormy weather.

Indications tended to establish normal road conditions by tonight. The Twin City buses continued their scheduled trips and other bus routes were expected to be opened today.

The trains were running nearer to schedule today than any day since the storm. The temperature last night recorded 7 degrees below zero as the minimum and raised to 5 below at 8 o'clock. Forecasts showed that the cold wave throughout the northwest had been momentarily broken. The thermometer showed 15 above at 1 o'clock.

The county plows today were being used on State Aid Roads No. 4 and 5.

A checkup of conditions following the storm revealed the following: The heaviest snow was around Bemidji. There was also heavy snow around Moorhead and a strong wind had rapidly filled cuts and closed roads around Detroit Lakes. Superintendents at Duluth, Virginia, and Brainerd reported heavy snow and slow going, but all roads open today.

All those who are unable to get in the first show will be taken care of until the start of the second show. They will be housed in warm quarters during that time.

Mayor Halsted was surprised to find in his mail this morning the commission from the grand lodge of the Eagles appointing him grand deputy president of the order. Coming unsolicited as it did the mayor was certainly honored. He was already past worthy president of the local aerie.

J. C. Hessel has heard nothing more regarding the money which was left him by a rich relative in Germany. He expects to hear from there, however, in a short time.

On Christmas eve W. S. Wheeler, of this city, and Miss Mary Scott of Scotchtown, Quebec, will be married and after spending a few weeks in the east they will come to Brainerd to make their future home.

Jerome Kelleher has leased his bowling alley to J. N. Omen. Mr. Omen intends to buy new fixtures and will fix up the place in elegant style. The alleys have recently been put in excellent shape.

The planing mill of the Brainerd Lumber Company has been started again after a shutdown of several days for repairs. The mill will be run with full force from now until spring. The men are all busy getting the machinery in the big mill in shape for next season's work.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

13 SHOT LAST WEEK

Farmers Report Presence of Animal in Yards; Menace to Cattle and Deer

Trappers, hunters and farmers continued their drive last week to rid the county of wolves with the result that 13 were shot and trapped.

In spite of the large number taken this year farmers reported many packs still at large that are menacing deer and farm stock.

The following collected bounties last week at the county auditor's: M. H. Moritz, Louis Moritz, Fairfield; Ed. Kimball, L. T. Sanford, Watertown; Frank Skinaway, Ross Lake; S. J. Berry, Riverton; D. G. Peterson, W. Schwendeman, Paul Bernard, Brainerd; Ed. Ledoux, Maple Grove; M. Walton, Jenkins; William Lucas, Wolford; H. R. Congdon, Oak Lawn.

The lure of wolf hunting, the $15 bounty and the amount received for the hide has extended to all parts of the county. Farmers reported seeing wolves on moonlight nights prowling about the fields and many Brainerd hunters have formed groups to track down the elusive animal.

TRAINEE FAMILIES ARE ENTERTAINED

American Legion Auxiliary Host at a Christmas Party on Saturday

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Santa Claus Gives Each Kiddie Present, and Family Heads Remembered Too

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary entertained Saturday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce at a Christmas party for the trainee families who live in the country.

The children played games and sang songs and danced around the Christmas tree waiting for Santa to come—when he did arrive shrieks were heard from all over the room and some of the more timid youngsters ran and hid their faces while those just a wee bit braver stood and stared.

Santa gave each kiddie a pair of stockings, a toy and nuts and candy. Each family was given a box of apples. Everyone went home with a happy smile on their faces and their arms full of bundles.

Will the Minnesota plate of 1928 resemble the above? If the suggestion of Tingdale Brothers of Minneapolis is accepted it undoubtedly will.

Last year the Tingdale Brothers of Minneapolis suggested that the Minnesota Automobile License tags be changed so as to carry the wording, "Land of 10,000 Lakes." Their suggestion this year is that the shape of the tag be changed so as to represent the outline of a fish.

Idaho has adopted a potato as an outline, and Minnesota, the nation's greatest summer playground, should adopt the fish outline is the belief of Tingdale Brothers.

There is no doubt that if Minnesota cars all carried fish shaped license tags, reminding people everywhere they go that Minnesota is a great summer playground, that the state would get a great amount of publicity.

6 IMPRISONED IN SUNKEN SUB FIGHTING FOUL AIR

to the bottom "like a stone" on Saturday afternoon, but divers established contact yesterday and electrified the world when they told how, tapping on the steel hull in code with hammers, they got a response.

The six were in the torpedo room, with the water-tight doors shutting them off from the rest of the submarine. It was feared that the other 34 men aboard the badly crushed submersible were dead.

"Please hurry. Will you be long now?" was the message that came through the hull.

Thomas Eadie, one of the navy's expert divers, was the first to descend after the S-4 was located. He crawled over the sunken craft, with a gaping hole amidships where the prow of the coast guard destroyer Paulding cut through it. He tapped constantly against the steel sides, listening for a response. When he reached the torpedo room, well up in the bow of the submarine, it came.

The dramatic dialogue between the diver and the men inside, separated by a thin wall of steel but worlds apart as far as personal contact goes, was spelled out with hammer blows; Eadie, pressed against the hull, hearing them distinctly.

"Tap-tap-tap-tap" went Eadie's hammer, slowly spelling out the all-important question:

"Is gas bad?"

"No," came the response, "but the air. How long will you be now?" Eadie, dreading to tell them the time he knew it would take to reach them, evaded the question.

"How many are there?" he tapped back.

"There are six. Please hurry." Then again the half-despairing question:

"Will you be long now?"

"We are doing everything possible," Eadie replied.

The navy was doing every possible, but the officers in charge did not minimize the peril of the trapped men or the almost insurmountable task it would be to reach them before the fouling air became impossible to breathe.

Navy men said it was possible they could stay alive for 48 hours, especially with the aid of the containers of extra oxygen believed to be in the torpedo room. Whether the submarine could be brought to the surface and opened within that time was a gamble, with the odds in favor of the sea, fighting to keep the lives to which it had laid claim.

FUTILE EFFORTS TO FORCE AIR INTO HULK

New London, Conn., Dec. 19.—Efforts to force air into the hulk of the sunken submarine S-4 have proven futile, Admiral R. S. Brumby in charge of salvage operations, reported today.

Accordingly those efforts have been abandoned and hope of raising the submarine and saving the lives of six men known to be alive aboard, rested with the arrival of pontoons with which the sunken ship may be floated.

The navy tug Mohave left here early today for Provincetown waters with chain, rope and other equipment to be used in the attempt to lift the submarine.

Meanwhile, the tugs Triton and Iwana were proceeding to meet the tugs Sagamore and Iuka, towing pontoons.

The Triton and Iwana will assist the other tugs through the Cape Cod canal and thence to the scene of the disaster.

THINKS HE KNOWS IDENTITY OF THREE MEN

Newport, R. I., Dec. 19.—Roger L. Braley, until recently a member of the crew of the S-4, today told the United Press the names of three men he believes are among the six reported alive in the sunken submarine.

Roger L. Short of Booneville, Mo., Frank Snizek of Ridgefield, N. J., and Russell A. Crabb of San Diego, Calif., are thought by Braley to be in the forward compartment awaiting rescue.

"I think it is a safe guess that Short, Snizek and Crabb are among the six alive," said Braley, who escaped almost certain death by a queer twist of fate which brought him his discharge a few days ahead of schedule.

"It is impossible to say who the other three men are. I would guess that one might be an officer and the other two members of the crew."

Asked what he thought the chances were of taking his former seemates out alive, Braley said: "I don't think there is a chance unless they can reach the trapped men very soon. It must be terribly cold down there and then, too, it is safe to say that the prisoners have nothing to eat."

"Some of the compartments are equipped with emergency rations, but I am quite sure there was no food in the forward compartment."

Washington, Dec. 19.—Investigation of the submarine S-4 will be conducted alone by the navy department, Admiral Billard, head of the coast guard announced today. The navy had already ordered a special board of inquiry to investigate.

Billard expressed the coast guard's regrets for the guard destroyer Paulding's ramming of the S-4 and told Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, "We will leave the entire investigation with full confidence to the navy board."

Lakehurst, N. J., Dec. 19.—Ten tanks of helium gas, to be used in aiding the operations of divers attempting to salvage the submarine S-4, were rushed to Provincetown, Mass., from the naval air station here today.

Airplanes carried four of the tanks, and six were dispatched by train.

Fred Thomson in "Jesse James" A Paramount Picture Beautiful Esther Ralston Here in Fascinating Film Stage Life with all of its glamour and problems is revealed to the public in a powerful Paramount picture "The Spotlight" which opened at the Lyceum theatre yesterday. It is a fascinating story that "The Spotlight" tells and certainly Esther Ralston is a winsome star.

There is not a dull moment in "The Spotlight." The story is far above the ordinary. There's a real plot in abundance. There is humor, and there is that lure of the stage that adds an extra piquancy to situations that are in themselves gripping. To miss "The Spotlight" is to miss seeing one of the best pictures released this season.

Fred Thomson Screens The Life of Jesse James

Jesse James' life story has reached the screen with the aid of his son, Jesse E. James, Jr. One of the most romantic and colorful careers of American history, it was screened by Fred Thomson exactly as it was lived as the son of the famous soldier and guerrilla fighter acted as technical advisor and biographer.

The picture, which is called "Jesse James" is the first production to be made by Mr. Thomson for Paramount release and will be shown at the Lyceum Tuesday and Wednesday.

Y. M. C. A. CAGERS DEFEAT PEQUOT IN OVERTIME PERIOD

LOCALS TAKE FIRST GAME OF SEASON AWAY FROM HOME BY COUNT OF 23 TO 21

NUTTING STARS ON OFFENSIVE WITH 11 POINTS; ANDERSON SCORED 3 BASKETS

Coming from behind in the closing minutes of play, the Y. M. C. A. basketball team scored a sensational 23-21 victory over Pequot Saturday night. The game was fast and rough on both sides. The locals were hampered to some extent by the smallness of the Pequot floor and the rough brick walls which constitute the out of bound zones.

The "Y" team without the services of Hess, Orth and Beck, three of the mainstays, displayed good form for the first game of the season, everyone doing best for a victory.

The first half ended 7-6 in favor of Pequot. Starting the second half Pequot ran the score up to 16-9. Then the locals found their shooting eye and the end of the game found the score 21-21. A five minute overtime period was necessary and Nutting scored a goal to cinch the game for the "Y."

Captain Nutting was the offensive star of the game, getting a total of 11 points, while Anderson accounted for six points. Joe Fitzharris at center and Lawrenz and Fitzsimmons at guards also played fine games in their positions.

Famous Artist Depicts Coolidge As "Human, Kindly, Thoughtful"

Howard Chandler Christy, internationally famous artist, illustrator, and portrait painter, disagrees with those who picture President Coolidge as "the grim, silent man of the White House."

The President, reputed to be taciturn and uncommunicative, has even been described as cool and unapproachable. That this impression of Mr. Coolidge has gained wide currency is indicated by the frequent newspaper references to "Silent Cal," and waggish comparisons of the executive to an iceberg and other objects descriptive of frigidity and immobility.

"If the impression prevails that President Coolidge is cold, unapproachable, silent and lacking in human qualities," declares Mr. Christy, who was a guest at the White House for several weeks while painting a portrait of the President and Mrs. Coolidge, "then I should say that the President is an excellent actor."

Mr. Christy was seated in his beautiful New York studio where such celebrities as Col. George Harvey, former Ambassador to England, Will Hays, Czar of the Motion picture industry, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Coleman Du Pont, and others, have sat for portraits. Beside him stood his dazzling wife, the famous "Christy Girl" of a thousand magazine covers and illustrations.

"From the viewpoint of a portrait painter, just what impression did you form of Coolidge, the man?" urged the interviewer.

"He is one of the most human men I ever met," replied the artist. "He is really a most interesting conversationalist. He is extremely thoughtful of others. I could relate a dozen incidents illustrative of his solicitude for others, his humanness and kindness. Being very human himself, he likes to make human contacts."

"The President may be cool and unapproachable to politicians who come bearing gifts in one hand and axes which they want to grind in the other, but he is an entirely different man when with his family and friends. He radiates charm, geniality, and kindness. I honestly believe that President Coolidge is one of the most popular presidents we have ever had. If he is unpopular with certain politicians, this is more than compensated by his popularity with the masses, with the average citizen of Main street, throughout the year, on special occasions, anniversaries and holidays such as Easter, Saint Valentine's Day, Christmas and New Years, the White House is literally deluged with greeting cards and personal expressions of greetings pouring in from every section of the country. This to me seems significant. It certainly does not convey an impression of unpopularity, nor does it indicate that the people who really count regard the president as "cool and unapproachable." I found him to be the very opposite, and I assure that the expressions of good will which come to him each day from all over the country are not for Coolidge the President, but Coolidge the Man."

to the bottom "like a stone" on Saturday afternoon, but divers established contact yesterday and electrified the world when they told how, tapping on the steel hull in code with hammers, they got a response.

The six were in the torpedo room, with the water-tight doors shutting them off from the rest of the submarine. It was feared that the other 24 men aboard the badly crushed submarine were dead.

"Please hurry. Will you be long now?" was the message that came through the hull.

Thomas Eadie, one of the navy's expert divers, was the first to descend after the S-4 was located. He crawled over the sunken craft, with a gaping hole amidships where the prow of the coast guard destroyer Paulding cut through it. He tapped constantly against the steel sides, listening for a response. When he reached the torpedo room, well up in the bow of the submarine, it came.

The dramatic dialogue between the diver and the men inside, separated by a thin wall of steel but worlds apart as far as personal contact goes, was spelled out with hammer blows; Eadie, pressed against the hull, hearing them distinctly.

"Tap-tap-tap-tap" went Eadie's hammer, slowly spelling out the all-important question:

"Is gas bad?"

"No," came the response, "but the air. How long will you be now?"

Eadie, dreading to tell them the time he knew it would take to reach them, evaded the question.

"How many are there?" he tapped back.

"There are six. Please hurry."

Then again the half-despairing question:

"Will you be long now?"

"We are doing everything possible," Eadie replied.

The navy was doing every possible, but the officers in charge did not minimize the peril of the trapped men or the almost insurmountable task it would be to reach them before the fouling air became impossible to breathe.

Navy men said it was possible they could stay alive for 48 hours, especially with the aid of the containers of extra oxygen believed to be in the torpedo room. Whether the submarine could be brought to the surface and opened within that time was a gamble, with the odds in favor of the sea, fighting to keep the lives to which it had laid claim.

FUTILE EFFORTS TO FORCE AIR INTO HULK

New London, Conn., Dec. 19.—Efforts to force air into the hulk of the sunken submarine S-4 have proven futile, Admiral R. S. Brumby in charge of salvage operations, reported today.

Accordingly those efforts have been abandoned and hope of raising the submarine and saving the lives of six men known to be alive aboard, rested with the arrival of pontoons with which the sunken ship may be floated.

The navy tug Mohave left here early today for Provincetown waters with chain, rope and other equipment to be used in the attempt to lift the submarine.

Meanwhile, the tugs Triton and Iwana were proceeding to meet the tugs Sagamore and Iuka, towing pontoons.

The Triton and Iwana will assist the other tugs through the Cape Cod canal and thence to the scene of the disaster.

THINKS HE KNOWS IDENTITY OF THREE MEN

Newport, R. I., Dec. 19.—Roger L. Braley, until recently a member of the crew of the S-4, today told the United Press the names of three men he believes are among the six reported alive in the sunken submarine.

Roger L. Short of Booneville, Mo., Frank Snizek of Ridgefield, N. J., and Russell A. Crabb of San Diego, Calif., are thought by Braley to be in the forward compartment awaiting rescue.

"I think it is a safe guess that Short, Snizek and Crabb are among the six alive," said Braley, who escaped almost certain death by a queer twist of fate which brought him his discharge a few days ahead of schedule.

"It is impossible to say who the other three men are. I would guess that one might be an officer and the other two members of the crew."

Asked what he thought the

chances were of taking his former

seamates out alive, Braley said:

"I don't think there is a chance unless they can reach the trapped men very soon. It must be terribly cold down there and then, too, it is safe to say that the prisoners have nothing to eat."

"Some of the compartments are equipped with emergency rations, but I am quite sure there was no food in the forward compartment."

Washington, Dec. 19.—Investigation of the submarine S-4 will be conducted alone by the navy department, Admiral Billard, head of the coast guard announced today. The navy had already ordered a special board of inquiry to investigate.

Billard expressed the coast guard's regrets for the guard destroyer Paulding's ramming of the S-4 and told Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, "We will leave the entire investigation with full confidence to the navy board."

Lakehurst, N. J., Dec. 19.—Ten tanks of helium gas, to be used in aiding the operations of divers attempting to salvage the submarine S-4, were rushed to Provincetown, Mass., from the naval air station here today.

Airplanes carried four of the tanks, and six were dispatched by train.

Fred Thomson in "Jesse James" A Paramount Picture
Beautiful Esther Ralston Here in Fascinating Film

Stage life with all of its glamour and problems is revealed to the public in a powerful Paramount picture "The Spotlight" which opened at the Lyceum theatre yesterday. It is a fascinating story that "The Spotlight" tells and certainly Esther Ralston is a winsome star.

There is not a dull moment in "The Spotlight." The story is far above the ordinary. There is a real plot in abundance. There is humor, and there is that lure of the stage that adds an extra piquancy to situations that are in themselves gripping. To miss "The Spotlight" is to miss seeing one of the best pictures released this season.

Fred Thomson Screens The Life of Jesse James

Jesse James' life story has reached the screen with the aid of his son, Jesse E. James, Jr. One of the most romantic and colorful careers of American history, it was screened by Fred Thomson exactly as it was lived as the son of the famous soldier and guerrilla fighter acted as technical advisor and biographer.

The picture, which is called "Jesse James" is the first production to be made by Mr. Thomson for Paramount release and will be shown at the Lyceum Tuesday and Wednesday.

Y. M. C. A. CAGERS DEFEAT PEQUOT IN OVERTIME PERIOD

LOCALS TAKE FIRST GAME OF SEASON AWAY FROM HOME BY COUNT OF 23 TO 21

NUTTING STARS ON OFFENSIVE WITH 11 POINTS; ANDERSON SCORED 3 BASKETS

Coming from behind in the closing minutes of play, the Y. M. C. A. basketball team scored a sensational 23-21 victory over Pequot Saturday night. The game was fast and rough on both sides. The locals were hampered to some extent by the smallness of the Pequot floor and the rough brick walls which constitute the out of bound zones.

The "Y" team without the services of Hess, Orth and Beck, three of the mainstays, displayed good form for the first game of the season, everyone doing best for a victory.

The first half ended 7-6 in favor of Pequot. Starting the second half Pequot ran the score up to 16-9. Then the locals found their shooting eye and the end of the game found the score 21-21. A five minute overtime period was necessary and Nutting scored a goal to cinch the game for the "Y."

Captain Nutting was the offensive star of the game, getting a total of 11 points, while Anderson accounted for six points. Joe Fitzharris at center and Lawrenz and Fitzsimmons at guards also played fine games in their positions.

Famous Artist Depicts Coolidge As "Human, Kindly, Thoughtful"

Howard Chandler Christy, internationally famous artist, illustrator, and portrait painter, disagrees with those who picture President Coolidge as "the grim, silent man of the White House."

The President, reputed to be taciturn and uncommunicative, has even been described as cool and unapproachable. That this impression of Mr. Coolidge has gained wide currency is indicated by the frequent newspaper references to "Silent Cal," and waggish comparisons of the executive to an iceberg and other objects descriptive of frigidity and immobility.

"If the impression prevails that President Coolidge is cold, unapproachable, silent and lacking in human qualities," declares Mr. Christy, who was a guest at the White House for several weeks while painting a portrait of the President and Mrs. Coolidge, "then I should say that the President is an excellent actor."

Mr. Christy was seated in his beautiful New York studio where such celebrities as Col. George Harvey, former Ambassador to England, Will Hays, Czar of the Motion picture industry, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Coleman Du Pont, and others, have sat for portraits. Beside him stood his dazzling wife, the famous "Christy Girl" of a thousand magazine covers and illustrations.

"From the viewpoint of a portrait painter, just what impression did you form of Coolidge, the man?" urged the interviewer.

"He is one of the most human men I ever met," replied the artist. "He is really a most interesting conversationalist. He is extremely thoughtful of others. I could relate a dozen incidents illustrative of his solicitude for others, his humanness and kindness. Being very human himself, he likes to make human contacts."

"The President may be cool and unapproachable to politicians who come bearing gifts in one hand and axes which they want to grind in the other, but he is an entirely different man when with his family and friends. He radiates charm, geniality, and kindness. I honestly believe that President Coolidge is one of the most popular presidents we have ever had. If he is unpopular with certain politicians, this is more than compensated by his popularity with the masses, with the average citizen of Main street, for throughout the year, on special occasions, anniversaries and holidays such as Easter, Saint Valentine's Day, Christmas and New Years, the White House is literally deluged with greeting cards and personal expressions of greetings pouring in from every section of the country. This to me seems significant. It certainly does not convey an impression of unpopularity, nor does it indicate that people who really count regard the president as "cool and unapproachable." I found him to be the very opposite, and I am sure that the expressions of good will which come to him each day from all over the country are not for Coolidge the President, but Coolidge the Man."
